District Team Goals for 2017

1. Encourage the participation of all units on the District in making and meeting their pledge to mission.
2. Challenge every unit on the District to become a Mission Today unit and to utilize “Living into our Purpose” as a tool in planning activities and programs for the unit. Our three Richmond District Social Action Priorities for 2017: Human Trafficking, Environmental Justice, and Poverty.
3. Communicate with local units through periodic contact provided by Shepherding Teams.
4. Continue with the expanded format for officer training and focus groups offered through the Leader and Member Development Day that was initiated in 2013.
5. Nurture our connection with local units through increased District Team Visitations.
6. Promote and encourage attendance/participation at District UMW events, District mission trips and the Richmond District Mission Encounter.
7. Encourage attendance at Conference Events, with special attention to the 2017 Mission Encounter and 2017 Spiritual Life Retreat. Publicize scholarships for these events.
8. Continue prayer partners and prayer chain on the District Mission Team. Encourage units to establish prayer partners.
9. Provide a small group spiritual growth opportunity for local unit members at a “Day Apart” Retreat in 2017 at Richmond Hill Retreat Center.
