presentation.

Drum Roll for October... the VA Conference UMW Annual Meeting will be held on October 26th at Reveille UMC, 4200 Cary Street Road, Richmond, VA. 23221. Harriet Jane Olson will be our guest goals as they pertain to the sisterhood of the United Methodist Women. Registration form in this issue.

Be in prayer for discernment, then put on the full armor of God and be bold in your actions to work for our mission initiatives.

2 Timothy 1:7 For God has not given us a spirit of timidity, but of power and love and discipline.

Peace

Ladies, as the summer winds down I know you have lots on your mind, so I will bring just three things to your attention this quarter.

- Please complete and return your "UMW Deceased Members" form (in this issue) for the period September 1, 2018 to August 31, 2019 as soon as you can, so that we may honor these faithful members at our District Annual Meeting on September 28 at Worship and Praise UMC.
- As I noted in the last WORD, please recruit and register your 40-and-under members for the exciting Virginia Conference Young Women's Event, September 13-14, at Camp Overlook in Keezletown, VA.
- Finally, I thank you all for your outstanding performance in the UMW 2018 Census. We recently received our final report and again we achieved 100% of 40 units reporting. We showed a slight increase in membership, at 1,348, out of 11,464 members in the Virginia Conference. We have received the data from the census in a large Excel spreadsheet as well as a beautiful graphic analysis of the responses in a pdf. If you would like to see the data let me know and I will be glad to forward them to you.

Thank you for all you do to support mission and to nurture your members.

Spiritual Life

Random Acts of Kindness

Some say that the American writer Anne Herbert scribbled the phrase “practice acts of kindness and senseless acts of beauty” on a placemat at a restaurant in 1986. The statement has since been popularized through films, on literature and has become a part of our vocabulary.

The question is, why should I show kindness towards those who follow Jesus. The answer is clear, to show the tender mercy of the kindness of God. There is a good example in the Old Testament of the story of Ruth the Moabite who was a foreigner in Moab living in the new and strange land whose language and culture were strange to her she did not understand. Furthermore she was desperately poor, utterly dependent on the charity of a people who took too little notice of her. There was an Israelite who showed Ruth grace and spoke to her heart (Ruth 2:13). He allowed her to glean in his field because it was barley season. But more than simple charity he showed her by his compassion the tender mercy of God. One under whose wings she could find refuge. She became Boaz’s bride, part of the family of God. Lord, what will you have me to do for another person today. God guide and direct my path to show kindness. In summary, the Israelite showed compassion, kindness and mercy to Ruth.

In order for everyone to follow in the goodness of that Israelite we should ask ourselves, Lord, what should you have me do for another person today? Lord, lead, guide and direct my path to show kindness.

Blessings,

Hilda Watson, Spiritual Life
Dear UMW Sisters,

United Methodist Women: faith, hope, and love in action. You'll see below action related three current social justice issues. As we move into fall, and nearer to the 2020 session of the General Assembly, I'll also be sharing additional information with you about the United Methodist Women Social Action priorities and how they can be promoted here in Virginia.

Do you remember our recent UMW study on Latin America and the deplorable, frightening conditions, especially in Guatemala, Nicaragua, and El Salvador? Some UMW units responded to that study by supporting Just Neighbors and other immigrant services programs. On July 8, 2019 I received correspondence signed by Bishop Minerva G. Carcaño Chair, UM Immigration Task Force, Susan Henry-Crowe, General Secretary, General Board of Church and Society, Thomas Kemper, General Secretary, General Board of Global Ministries, and Harriet J. Olson, General Secretary/CEO, United Methodist Women. "A Call to Action for United Methodist in Response to the Plight of Migrants" is included as an attachment to this issue of The WORD. If you, or your UMW unit, is motivated to assist the United Methodist Sanctuary Church in our Virginia Conference, please see the email response I received from Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church.

Do you remember the February 2018 "Hearts for Justice Program" and Ben Campbell stressing that access to transportation is tied to employment opportunity as well as to access to services, such as health, education, food, etc. He highlighted RVA Rapid Transit and its work to increase public transportation and encouraged us to press for a new bus route linking downtown Richmond with southside Richmond/Chesterfield County along the Jeff Davis Highway. Good News It was reported in the June 27, 2019 issue of the Richmond Times Dispatch (RTD) that the Chesterfield Board of Supervisors (BOS) approved a pilot project for a new GRTC Transit System bus route along the Jeff Davis Highway. Thanks to those who attended BOS meetings and followed developments in the paper or at the RVA Rapid Transit homepage.

Do you remember this year's "Hearts for Justice Program" and the film highlighting the racial disparity between rates of maternal death in this country, with African-American women being three-to-five times more likely to die of pregnancy related complications than white women? Nationally, UM is advocating for states to have Maternal Mortality Review Committees. Fortunately, Virginia does have an active Maternal Mortality Review Team. The team recently reported on chronic conditions that make it difficult for women to navigate the health system and will present a formal report on its findings later this year. In June our Governor signed a bill to codify the Maternal Mortality Review Team. This means it now is part of state law. In the meantime, the Department of Medical Assistance Services (DMAS), which administers Medicaid, is beginning to use new technology to help make sure low-income women don't experience a gap in coverage. Also, that agency will work with other state agencies and managed care organizations "to strengthen early childhood interventions, curb tobacco use among pregnant women, share data and improve reporting on performance measures" and listen more carefully to consumers. (RTD July 2, 2019) Stay tuned.

Mission Coordinator for Social Action
“Call to Action” information from Sanctuary Church in Virginia Annual Conference

Note: This email is a reply sent to Wenda Singer, Richmond District Mission Coordinator for Social Action by Gina Edwards of Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church, a United Methodist Sanctuary Church in the Virginia Annual Conference.

"Hi Wenda~

Thanks so much for your diligence in reaching out to us about our sanctuary mission.

There are many ways Richmond District UMW can help in this effort.

Prayers, of course, for the mission and for the softening of hearts that are currently hardened to so many of our international friends who are seeking asylum in this country.

Financial assistance is also always welcome. Donations can be mailed to our church, with the notation "Hands Off Maria" or "Sanctuary" in the notes section. They can also be made via our PayPal account: https://wesleymumc.org/giving/ Simply note "Sanctuary" in the notes section there as well.

If you have congregants who live in the area or are regular visitors here (students, for example), we offer a more personal option to assist: Accompaniment. We have a rotating team of people who spend time being available to be on-site to accompany Maria about our campus as needed. This is not a stressful position, is totally voluntary and on an "as you can" basis, but it does require some training. If anyone is interested, they can contact me directly for more information.

Finally, it would be incredibly helpful if folks would reach out to their elected representatives in writing or by phone to show their support of this ministry - not just here at Wesley but around the country.

Let me know if you’d also like links to some recent articles.

Thank you so much for helping spread this message!

I hope you were among the 31 people from the Richmond District who attended this summer's weekend Mission Encounter at Smith Mountain Lake. We had 24 women, 6 men, and 1 teen. I was in the study, “Women United for Change: 150 Years in Mission”, and I am in awe of our foremothers who defied convention to improve the lives of women, children, and youth, often without the support and approval of the male leadership of the church and mission boards. I highly recommend the book, whether or not you participate in a formal study.

For those who were unable to attend Mission Encounter or who want to attend a different study, I invite you to Beulah UMC, my church home, for the Mini-Mission Encounter on September 14, 8:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m., where you can get an overview of the mission studies. Please note this is a Saturday morning. A continental breakfast will be served. The registration form with details is in this issue, and the registration deadline is September 6.

Please remember that your Living Into Our Purpose forms are due to me by August 15, and you will find one in this issue. I have received only a few so far, so I hope your unit is using the form to guide your work as UMW. If you have any questions about filling out the form, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Blessings on you and your units as you work for God's Kingdom,

What is it? A mini version of the Virginia Conference Mission Encounter. Participants will gain an overview of the Mission Studies. The Mini-Mission Encounter provides an opportunity for men, women, and youth to learn about partnering in God’s global mission and to grow spiritually.

Who Should Attend? Any United Methodist with a passion for Missions.

Mission Studies:

Spiritual Growth Study: Practicing Resurrection: The Gospel of Mark and Radical Discipleship

Focus: This study explores what it means to live a life of radical discipleship today using the Gospel of Mark as the foundation. The author explores the timeless issues of poverty, gender, justice, liberation, equality, and others using Mark as a guide.

Study Leader: Rev. Laura Douglass

Anniversary Study: Women United for Change: 150 Years in Mission

Focus: This is the first in a two-year study commemorating United Methodist Women’s 150th anniversary in 2019. This study is about women who established vibrant societies to support mission. Learning about early leaders who created what would become known as United Methodist Women can help us understand who they truly were beyond who we expected them to have been.

Study Leader: Mrs. Ann Klotz

Issue Study: What About Our Money?

Focus: What About Our Money? A Faith Response explores how we understand money within the context of our faith. We will explore our own relationship with money, the money choices available to us, and how we individually and collectively respond to economic inequalities in light of our faith.

Study leader: Rev. David Rash

RAINBOW GIVER FORM
VIRGINIA CONFERENCE UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The Virginia Conference United Methodist Women started the Rainbow Giver Program in 2010. This is an opportunity for you, as an individual, to personally give to the 5 Channels of Mission Giving, whether or not you are a member of United Methodist Women.

A RAINBOW GIVER gives to all five channels of giving:
- $40 to give someone special a Special Mission Recognition Pin
- $5 Pledge to Mission
- $5 Gift to Mission
- $5 Special Recognition in Memory
- $5 World Thank Offering
- $60 Total

Your $60 RAINBOW GIVER offering must specify that you are giving to the above five channels and designate who you want your pin to go to, which Gift in Mission card you want, where to send the cards, and that you are giving $60 as a Rainbow Giver. If you simply give $60 to your unit treasurer, you will not be a Rainbow Giver, you must designate that it is for Rainbow Giver.
